Red Meat Bliss

Welcome to the Duke of York, a rare gem on Prince Arthur Avenue!

We have several distinct areas on three floors that are sure to impress you and your guests.

THE CELLAR

Toronto's first Victorian pub is located on the lower level.

The pub was built in Southampton and shipped here piece by piece.

If you have a large group, you can "have-your-own" pub with a separate entrance! Our classic cocktail menu is unique to this lounge-style space; The Cellar is suitable for a cocktail party of 80.

THE PRINCE ARTHUR ROOMS, OAK BAR AND GARDEN ROOM

The long oak bar is the centrepiece of the main floor.

Adjacent are two beautiful rooms overlooking Prince Arthur which are perfect for small gatherings of up to 40 people. The Garden Room faces the backyard garden patio and can accommodate up to 40 people.

OUR GARDEN PATIOS

Casual is the word on the Annex's favourite backyard patio which seats 100 people. Also, our new frontyard patio seats 30 people.

THE QUEEN BESS ROOM, BAR AND CONSERVATORY

Cozy corner booths, fireplace, Tudor bar and a windowed balcony, make this a great floor for large parties up to 130. The Conservatory is a fabulous area for gatherings of up to 40.

From cocktail nibbles to dinner packages, including vegetarian selections, we have menu options to suit all tastes. We would be happy to customize a menu to suit your group's specific needs!

Enclosed you will find information to help you in planning your next party. We look forward to hearing from you!
